

KONSTANTINOS MORAITIS

Academic studies in the School of Architecture N.T.U.A (1972 - 1977). Postgraduate Degree, Université I de Paris - Panthéon – Sorbonne: DEA in Ethical and Political Philosophy, seminar concerning "Critical Theory of Art" (1979-80). Postgraduate Degree, Hellenic Mediterranean Centre for Arabic and Islamic Studies, Panteios University of Political Sciences (1980-81).

Working as professional architect since 1978. 25 awards in Architectural Competitions, in Greece and Cyprus, among which 6 first prizes. Participations in International Architectural Competitions, among which 2 first prizes.

Associate Professor at the School of Architecture N.T.U.A. Teaches courses in public building design, as well as in landscape design. Responsible for the postgraduate seminar of History and Theory of Landscape. Member of the International Association for Greek Philosophy, Hellenic Society of Aesthetics, Hellenic Institute of Architecture, Greek Society of Architecture, Association of Greek Architects – Hellenic Union of Architects (SADAS-PEA), Technical Chamber of Greece.

Participation in research programmes concerning architecture, urban design, landscape architecture. Numerous publications, concerning presentation of professional activity, as well as commentary articles, concerning theory of architecture and landscape architecture.